vs.

UNITED STATES
Respondent

RESPONSE/ANSWERS TO MOTION TO DISMISS

COMES NOW, the Petitioner, by and through Pro'se Donna Paul, has filed a Response/Answers to Motion to Dismiss reason being:

1. Petitioner and Respondent's attorney met during a telephone conference. They agreed to the following:
 - a. The Petitioner desire of the court is to grant petition to quash summons.
 - b. The Respondent's attorney stated that he would bring to his client's attention the request to reissue the Petitioner summons with the correct name and social security number.
 - c. The Petitioner desire of the court is for the summons to be reissued in the name of Donna M. Paul and with the correct social security number on it.
 - d. The Petitioner is requesting of the court that all future summons have Donna M. Paul name on it instead of Donna M. Paul and William D. Paul, reason being is that William D. Paul is currently in litigation in the same district court regarding the same matter.
3. Finally, the petitioner objected to the dismissal motion. The reason why the petitioner, filed the Petition to Quash Summons is because, IRS used the wrong NAME and SSN in requesting information on the petitioner. Therefore, the wrong information will cause irrevocable and unnecessary harm to the petitioner. The petitioner, pleads with the Court to grant the Petition to Quash Summons.
